

LCrR 6.15
Jury Instructions

Consistent with CrR 6.15, all parties shall file with the trial judge an original and one copy of their proposed instructions. The original shall not be numbered nor include any citations of authority in support of the instruction. The copy shall contain a proposed number and any citation of authority in support of the instruction. Authorities may include any number from any published book of instructions or case name and citation. Instructions must be provided to the trial judge not later than the day prior to commencement of trial.
